

Emergency Communications Training Radio Scripts

Example 1

Team 1: This is an exercise. Team leader, this is team 1, over.

Team Leader: Team 1, this is team leader, go ahead.

T1: We're sending out three greens, two yellows, and we're bringing out a red, over.

TL: Copy three greens, two yellows, and bringing out a red. What is the status of the red?

T1: We have one Caucasian female, approximately forty years old, medium build, with a compound fracture to the lower right leg, over.

TL: Copy one Caucasian female, approximately forty years old, medium build, with a compound fracture to the right leg. This is team leader, standing by.

T1: This is an exercise. This is team 1, standing by.

Example 2

Team Leader: This is an exercise. All teams, this is team leader. We've been notified of a large gas leak in the area. Please pull back to Incident Command. Repeat, all teams pull back to Incident Command. This is team leader, this is an exercise, out.

Example 3

Team Leader: This is an exercise. All teams, this is team leader. Please report on your location, over.

Team 1: This is team 1. We are in the conference room of the church, over.

Team 2: This is team 2. We are outside at the rear of the church, over.

TL: Copy locations of Teams 1 and 2. This is an exercise. Out.

Example 4

Team 1: This is an exercise. Team leader, this is team 1, over.

Team Leader: Team 1, this is team leader, go ahead.

T1: We have five reds and can only transport one out at a time. We need more help for transporting people out, over.

TL: Copy that. Sending in team 2, over.

T1: This is team 1, standing by.

TL: Team leader to Team 2, over.

Team 2: Team leader, this is team 2, go ahead.

TL: Team 1 needs assistance with extracting a total of 5 reds. Please report to their location, over.

T2: Copy that. Team 2 responding to team 1 location. This is an exercise, standing by.

Example 5

Team 1: This is an exercise. Team leader, this is team 1, over.

Team Leader: Team 1, this is team leader, go ahead.

T1: Requesting to pass a message to team 2, over.

TL: Team leader to team 2, over.

Team 2: Team leader, this is team two, go ahead.

TL: Team 1 has a message for you. Team 1, go ahead and pass your message.

T1: Team 1 to team 2, how copy?

T2: We copy, go ahead.

T1: When you come into the house, go past the kitchen, past the bathroom, and turn right. There will be a door on your right leading to the basement stairs. At the bottom of the stairs, turn left, come past the debris pile and you'll find us on the right. Any fills needed?

(If there are)

T2: Affirmative, everything before/after X (given word from transmission).

T1: (Repeats everything before or after the given word) Additional fills needed?

(If there are not or the fills are finished)

T2: Negative, we copy the message. This is Team 2, standing by.

T1: This is team 1, this is an exercise, standing by.